Dear Miss Mason:

I regret to tell you that I have a dinner in New York on December 5 at which I must speak and which is of very long standing, which will prevent my attending the meeting of the Board of Trustees. Otherwise I certainly would be with you and I hope you will express my regrets to Mr. Herter, Dr. Eisenhower, and Dean Wilcox.

I have been able to attend so few of the meetings of the Board that I feel most apologetic and wish that you would consider whether you do not feel that you should replace me with someone who could attend more often. Please think this over and let me have your very frank views.

Sincerely,
